PUBLIC BUYING STOCK OF NEW HOTEL COMPANY

More Than 470 Shares Subscribed for Without Solicitation, Except Through Advertising.

The public interest in the building of the new hotel on the site of the old Arlington has not abated evidently, although the plans for offering the stock to the public are held in abeyance until the health department orders as to public meetings are modified.

During the past week more than 150 shares were subscribed for. This week John T. Walsh, president of the Tri-State Hotel Building company, has received subscriptions for 319 shares of stock. He has also received letters from a number of out-of-town points, in response to the newspaper advertising, asking for the reservation of stock. In some cases the writers stating that they expect to invest as much as $5,000 to $10,000 in the enterprise.

M. L. Jones, Traill, Miss., asks to have $2,000 worth reserved.

Dudley Prewitt, Bolivar, Tenn., writes that he intends to invest in the stock, considering it a safe, conservative investment, and feeling confident that it will prove a profitable one.

K. M. Wishart, Aberdeen, Miss., writes Mr. Walsh that the people of his section appreciate the need of another first-class hotel in Memphis, as they are tired of traveling to the city until midnight, waiting for someone to vacate a hotel room, and says he himself intends to buy shares of stock.

The executive board of the building company will probably meet next Monday to discuss the plan for the sale of the stock, as soon as the influenza ban is lifted.

Director of Army Goods Sales Claims Government Holds Enough Food and Clothing to Lower High Prices.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 5.—If the government places on the market at cost the clothing, food, vehicles, automobiles, trucks, barbed wire and other commodities it stored for war, it would knock the profiteer out, according to L. C. Cross, director of army goods sales in Louisville and city buyer.

He suggested that municipalities and communities purchase part of the supplies and in turn sell them to citizens at a slight profit. "This would go far toward relieving present cost of living conditions," he said.

Mr. Cross said goods for sale by the government included 100,000,000 yards of cotton cloth, gray cotton drilling, flannel shirts, 1,000,000 pounds of wool, yarn, woolen yarn, 1,000,000 woolen stockings and 6,000,000 woolen undershirts.

It has enough meat to supply the country for a long period. Stocks, Mr. Cross indicated, included $2,000,000 pounds of bacon, 20,000,000 pounds of corned beef, 20,000,000 pounds of frozen beef in New York, 45,000,000 pounds of Canned and 20,000,000 pounds of roast beef in cans.

Besides, Mr. Cross said, the government had 10,000,000 pounds of barbed wire, which farmers could use, and 1,000,000 pounds of candles for sale.

Italians Angered Over Attacks In Dalmatian Towns

ROME, Feb. 5.—Details of alleged Jugoslav attacks upon Italians at Spalato and Traw and published in the newspapers here, caused further excitement over the situation in Dalmatia.

It is reported that on Dec. 27 a manifesto was posted on walls at Spalato calling a meeting in the principal square in protest against Italian imperialism. The manifesto, it is asserted, contained insults against Italy and the contents urged the people to violence against Italians in the city. It is declared the commander of an American ship at Spalato did nothing to prevent the meeting which was in violation of an order issued by Admiral Niblack in Feb. 1917.

Inflammatory speeches against Italy and the entire powers marked the meeting. It is said, Col. Mihajlovic, the Serbian commander in Spalato, being especially violent in an address. When the meeting ended a mob rushed throughout the city, sackings and destroying all Italian shops and offices of Italian organizations. Later it went to the docks and removed from two ships the Italian flag, which was torn and trampled upon. No arrests were made with the exception of two Italians who dared to comment on the occurrence. It is declared in reports.
